Tactile Texture

- The perception of a Texture by touching an object. Every material has a different touch, so it is a different texture

- Examples:

Visual Texture

- When we represent a tactile texture using graphic elements, we get a visual texture. We can create visual textures using different art procedures: scrapping, stencilling, printing

- Examples: